Hollin Primary School
Reading Standard 3

Decoding
I can use knowledge of root words, suffixes and prefixes to read and understand new words.
I can use the context of the sentence to help me read unfamiliar words.
I can read out loud fluently and confidently, understanding how to use a range of punctuation.
Comprehension
I can use alphabetically ordered text to find information.
I can use a range of organisational features to locate information.
I can identify the features of different text types.
Language
I can discuss words and phrases that capture the reader's interest and imagination.
I can comment on the choice of language to create moods and build tension.
Reading and Responding
I can say how I would feel if I was in the character's shoes.
I can comment on how characters relate to one another.
I can justify predictions with evidence from the text.
I can justify inferences with evidence from the text.
I can evaluate specific texts with reference to text types.
I understand what the writer might be thinking.
Big Reader
I can retell some of the stories I am familiar with.
I can start to make simple connections between books by the same author.								