Children's feedback from Online Safety session held on Thursday 7th October

"I learned what to do if ever I encountered a stranger, or someone I don't know, online."

"I learned how to be safe online and not to trust people who you don't know."

"I shouldn't post any private pictures, or post me address online."

"I was shocked that anyone can impersonate someone else."

"People can threaten other with pictures that were taken a long time ago....this is called blackmail."

"We should always think before posting things online."

"I learned that even if content is deleted, it can still be found...there's always a trail."

"You can't trust everybody online."

"You shouldn't give away any personal information."

"We learned that some people post inappropriate images online....this can be called Sexting."

"Cyber Bullying is when people say mean things online."

"Sometimes people hide their identity by changing their avatar."
